Happy New Year everyone!! I hope you had a great holiday season.

What a crazy end to 2017 with the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act signed into law on December 22nd and New York State homeowners scrambling to pay their 2017/2018 property taxes in advance. The $10,000 deduction limitation on property taxes and state and local taxes is certainly a hot topic and will have a huge impact to many of us and our clients here in New York and other high-tax states.

Christmas 2017 was very different for me than any other year – my boyfriend, his 2 daughters and I were in Germany and Austria. We landed in Munich, Germany on December 20th, then proceeded to Oberammergau and Garmisch. After that we crossed over into Austria (without ANY border patrol might I add!), starting in Salzburg and finishing up in Vienna. We then returned back to New York on December 28th. I highly recommend visiting any of these cities – they are gorgeous and have so much history. I also learned the hard way to TRIPLE CHECK for my passport BEFORE leaving the house…

December 2017 ended with a busy finish with our Toys for Tots pickup by the United States Marines on December 8th at Sheehan & Company, followed by our all-day Tax Conference on December 9th, New York State Ethics Update on December 19th and annual GAAP update presented by Paul Becht on December 21st.

The following are events we have coming up for the rest of January and February:

• January 23rd – Our A&A and NFP Committees are hosting a 2 CPE session in the morning on the Do's and Don'ts of Financial Statements in Melville.

• January 23rd – Following our morning session, the FVS Committee will focus their creative skills with a paint nite in Sayville.

President’s Message (cont’d)

• January 25th – Join us at the semi-annual networking event with the Nassau Chapter at the Fox Hollow in Woodbury. Food and drink will be provided and this event is open to anyone – professional and students are welcome!

• February 1st – the East End Committee is holding its 2nd annual Networking on the East End event in Riverhead from 6-8pm and business casual attire is welcome.

• March 21st – Members in Industry is hosting a 2 CPE session on the basics of sales tax in Islandia.

In addition to these events, our Chapter’s Nominating Committee has begun accepting nominations for potential Suffolk Chapter Board Members. Please see page 4 for more details.

I wish you a busy but smooth tax season this year!!
