President’s Message

It’s hard to believe that the festive holidays are here around the corner and yet another year has passed. I hope everyone had a wonderful Thanksgiving and a busy weekend of holiday shopping with both Black Friday and Cyber Monday. It was a record year for online sales with retailers finally offering in store pricing online allowing more of us to take advantage of early bird sales prices.

Within our chapter, this month is also a busy time, as many of us are working to fulfill our annual CPE requirements. Our chapter has many opportunities this month to obtain the credits we need to meet the annual requirements.

November was a very busy month for the Suffolk Chapter with many technical and social networking events. In early November, we held both the Annual A&A update and the Annual Tax Conference. The Annual A&A update was held on November 9th at the Radisson Hotel in Hauppauge and covered topics such as construction accounting, not-for-profit updates, peer reviews, and revenue recognition. The Annual Tax Conference was held on November 10th at the Hyatt Regency in Hauppauge and covered topics such as Federal and NYS Tax updates, Section 199A, estate planning and cyber security. With the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 being signed into law at the end of 2017, this year’s main focus was on the significant changes to business tax for 2018.

Our Members in Industry Committee also held a joint meeting with the Nassau CFO committee on November 14th on Blockchain 101.

The Employee Benefits Committee held 2 retirement CPE sessions on November 27th at Adelphi University, one covering the Fundamentals of Retirement Income Planning and the other covering Converting your Savings to Income and Taxes in Retirement.

On November 29th, we held our annual Town Hall meeting and Professional Issues update. Jan Herringer, current President of the NYSSCPA and Ita Rahilly, President Elect, joined us at the Irish Coffee Pub in East Islip to discuss current issues within our profession and the NYSSCPA efforts regarding current issues.

I am very excited that on December 14th, Our Toys for Tots program will be coming to a close as the U.S. Marines come for their annual pick up at the offices of Sheehan & Company in Brightwaters. The NextGen Committee has been putting in tremendous effort into this program year after year to help families in need. This program continues to be the single largest pickup in Long Island for the U.S. Marines. I am truly grateful for the efforts of everyone within our chapter for making this program so successful.

We also have some other last-minute CPE coming up in the next couple of weeks if, like myself, you need to complete your CPE requirements. Please take a look out our upcoming events in the pages that follow.

– Melissa Hicks

Happy Holidays
Committee Report:
General Taxation

On November 10, 2018, the Suffolk Chapter All-Day Taxation Conference was held at the Hyatt Regency Long Island, in Hauppauge. With the onset of so much tax change due to the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, the committee decided this year to move the conference from December to provide more time for the attendees to work with the information they learned when performing year-end planning for their clients. Even with the change of the month, the turnout was good with over 70 people in attendance.

Neil Katz from Katz, Smith & Chwat, P.C. started off the conference with his annual Federal Tax Update, followed by a session on Federal and NYS Tax Collections by Karen Tennenbaum and Hana Boruchov.

After the break, we had a new speaker to the Suffolk Chapter, Matthew Rappaport, provide an estate planning session considering the tax reform. This year’s Hodgson Russ NYS Tax Update presenter was Joseph Endres, who did a great job informing us all about what was going on with New York State.

Because the tax reform could not be all covered by Neil Katz, we invited Louis Vlahos from Farrell Fritz, P.C. to speak just on Section 199A, to give us a deep dive into this one complicated area of the tax reform act that will be affecting most of our clients.

The last two afternoon sessions to wrap up the conference was an update on State Tax Nexus in light of the Wayfair decision by Brian Gordon, CPA and a session on Cybersecurity by Stephen Breidenbach of Moritt, Hock & Hamroff LLP.
Committee Report: Members in Industry

Our joint meeting held on November 14th with the Nassau CFO committee was a great success. The speaker was Jon Sesso, Blockchain Business Development Executive Financial Services Market at IBM North America, who explained the basics of Blockchain and bitcoin to an engaged audience. Marcum LLP kindly hosted the session.
