Happy (Belated) New Year! Busy season is upon us. Accountants everywhere are stocking up on coffee for those extended hours right around the corner.

I'm sure you all heard but 2017 brings some new requirements with New York State personal income tax returns. Beginning with tax year 2016, New York State is requiring tax preparers to obtain the taxpayer's driver's license or state-issued ID information for their electronically filed personal tax returns as an additional verification device to deter fraud. This is sure to result in some phone calls from clients.

On December 10 the Suffolk Chapter held its annual All Day Tax Conference. Our committee chairs worked hard to put together an excellent event.

On December 21, the Members in Industry Committee held an event on Cybersecurity presented by Brian Busto of BMB Solutions. Attendees learned about some of the sophisticated methods hackers use such as malware, phishing and ransomware.

The Suffolk Chapter began 2017 with some great events. On January 25 the Members in Industry Committee held its Annual Tax & Economic Update at Nawrocki Smith. (See details on page 4.)

On January 26 was the Nassau/Suffolk Chapter annual networking event at The Fox Hollow, which is always well-attended. More on page 6.

The East End Committee held its second event on February 2 at the Atlantis Banquet & Events in Riverhead, where guests enjoyed cocktails and hors d'oeuvres. Details on page 7.

I wish all of you a wonderful, prosperous and health new year. Have a great 2017!

— Brian Michels

Most companies are unaware of what exactly sensitive data is and where the sensitive data resides in their systems. Whether on an in-house or cloud-based environment, determining the locations of PII (personally identifiable information) data is the responsibility of the organization, along with securing this data.

The organization must implement policies and procedures to systematically review and analyze their data. Implementing controls to ensure that all classes of data are handled appropriately is critical to securing your PII data. Work with your IT team to designate the appropriate permissions to the folder & file structures.

For example, the company could implement a policy that all data containing PII is to be considered sensitive and, therefore, encrypted in transit across a network. The company must implement technical controls to enforce that policy with software to ensure the data is safe. Implementing email encryption is critical for the transit of PII data across the internet.

Securing your data requires the “least privileged” concept to be applied. For example, access to payroll data is usually restricted to those employees who process the payroll and those who review it. This is usually done via your payroll portal, secured directories on your server, or a payroll application. Payroll data should never be downloaded onto an unencrypted laptop, thereby undermining all of the required controls.

Employees must be educated about what PII data is, the sensitivity of this data, and the importance of keeping the data secured. This must be a part of each employee’s job description and job roles. Employee training is an important part of making the transition to securing data and educating users on what they should, and should not, do.

Many security regulations will be defined in the coming year. On the federal and state levels, companies with PII will be required to hold cyber insurance policies and implement cyber security policies that are regularly tested and continually reviewed. NIST/SANS guidelines cross-industry are already in place and require you to answer questionnaires or perform assessments showing that your data is being secured. When completed and acknowledged, these questionnaires and assessments can hold you accountable if your answers differ from the technology you have in place.

Don’t wait for the regulations to be in place. The burden of becoming compliant will be an overwhelming task for your organization. Start now to put the pieces in place on a planned and budgeted schedule.
Committee Report:
Members in Industry

On December 21 the Suffolk Members in Industry committee welcomed Brian Busto and Justin Kern from BMB Solutions. They presented on the technical aspects of cybersecurity risks, as follow up to the legal aspects previously addressed at the September committee meeting. Employee security, employee awareness and employee training were stressed including best practices for password structure. They provided numerous examples of businesses touched by cyber incidents and emphasized the importance of data protection as well as appropriate data backup for businesses of all sizes.

“What a difference a year makes.” So went the opening comments of our speakers, Ernie Smith and John Spatola from Nawrocki Smith LLP, at this year’s Economic/Tax Update, January 26.

In the past year, oil prices have risen, unemployment is at an all-time low, inflation is in check yet moving at a steady pace (good for the economy) and the overall US economy has moved up several more notches in terms of performance. The world economy seems to be moving in a positive direction. Locally, we continue to flourish as all indicators point upward from unemployment (at an all-time low) to real estate sales to sentiment which, just like in the national survey, is locally pointing upward.

The rousing presentation focused first on the national and local economies, outlining mostly positive indicators:

- Labor market is positive both nationally and locally
- Consumer confidence is high as sentiment continues in a positive direction
- Third quarter GDP was revised upward to 3.5%, the best showing in over 2 years.
- Dow up approximately 25% over the past year.
- S&P 500 up approximately 21% over the past year.
- Crude oil futures up from approximately $28 in January 2016 to approximately $53 in January 2017.
- The Federal Reserve raised key interest rate from 0.25% - 0.50% to 0.50% to 0.75%.
- The Federal Reserve key interest rate is expected to increase gradually 3 times in 2017.

The presentation then moved toward tax law adjustments/changes with a focus on the proposed changes in the new presidential administration. What ensued was a lively, mindful, thought-provoking discussion on the myriad of socio-economic issues inherited by our new president.

Committee Report:
Employee Benefits

On December 6, the Suffolk Chapter Employee Benefits Committee held a free seminar at Paradise Diner in Hauppauge entitled “The 5500: Analyzing and Interpretation.” The seminar offered 2 CPE hours in specialized knowledge, presented by Joseph Disalvo, ChFC, AIF from Quest Capital and Risk Management, Inc.

Mr. Disalvo discussed the past, current and future regulatory landscape of Form 5500 reporting. He presented a sample Form 5500, examined the various schedules currently required to be filed with the Form 5500, and discussed the different codes used in these schedules – what they mean and how to spot compliance oversights.

In addition, he discussed current DOL initiatives including the new proposed DOL Fiduciary Rule, and what this means to plan sponsors, investment advisors, broker-dealers and brokers, as well as others who service these plans. He also discussed potential tax planning and cost savings opportunities that can be identified through an analysis of a plan's form 5500 filing.

Approximately 23 people attended the seminar and were encouraged to ask questions during the presentation as well during the Q&A segment at the end.

The Employee Benefits Committee is planning several interesting seminars and presentations in the coming year. Please look for information in future Chapter newsletters. Our events are also posted on the NYSSCPA website.

Please feel free to reach out to co-chairs Suzanne Breit at sbreit@horanmm.com or Felicia Paura at fpaura@sheehancpa.com with any questions. We also welcome new members to our committee.
Committee Report: Cooperation with Bankers

Together with the Nassau Chapter, the Suffolk Cooperation with Bankers and Other Credit Grantors Committee held their semi-annual joint networking event on Thursday, January 26. It was the Committee’s first time hosting at The Fox Hollow in Woodbury. The swanky change in venue turned out to be a huge success with about 150 attendees who spanned the CPA, banking, finance, and legal professions!

Be on the lookout for future networking events to be held in 2017!
Committee Report:
East End

The East End Committee (EEC) held its second successful social event, bringing together approximately 45 accountants, attorneys, bankers, insurance professionals and professionals in industry. Held at Atlantis Marine World’s Sea Star Ballroom in downtown Riverhead, attendees ate, drank and mingled from 6-8pm. This event would not have been possible without our sponsor, Wells Fargo Home Mortgage!

The EEC is considering a few other events for the near future, such as a 5K charity run, a joint nine and dine golf event with the Forensic and Valuation Services (FVS) Committee and a wine tasting.

If you are interested in learning more about the Committee or getting involved, please feel free to contact us at any time. We would love to hear from you! Contact co-chairs Amanda Sexton, asexton@mfbcpa.com, and Sean Kelly, skelly@mfbcpa.com.
