Instructions for Form DTF-350

General Information

Form DTF-350, Group Affidavit, may be used to establish that a group agent is authorized to act for those group members when a partnership, New York S corporation, athletic team or other nonresident group is requesting permission (or reinstatement of permission) to file a group return on behalf of its group members.

Group Agent

A group agent must be appointed and designated by each member of a nonresident group requesting permission (or reinstatement of permission) to file a group return. The group agent must have legal authority to act as an agent in matters relating to the group return, for all group members participating in the return. The group agent is required to sign the group return, and any communications from the Tax Department will be sent to the group agent. Any notices required by law, such as notices of deficiency and notice and demands, will be sent to the group agent as well as to the individual group member involved. In addition, the group agent will be personally liable for only those penalties relating to making or signing an erroneous, false, or fraudulent return, but only if the agent was actually responsible for the error.

Specific Instructions

Name, Address and Group Identification Information

Form DTF-350 must be completed by the group agent. Enter your state and county of residence, name and address. Complete item (1) or (2), whichever is applicable, identifying the nonresident group you are representing. Check the appropriate box identifying the class of group members being represented.

Signature

This form must be signed by the group agent and notarized.

When to File

Form DTF-350 must be attached to Form PR-99, Application for Permission to File a Group Return. Form DTF-350 must also be attached to the initial group return when filed and attached to all subsequent years' group returns when filed, regardless of whether the group members have changed.
