SOCIETY WORK

Looking into 2023: Election Day has now come and gone. Democrats will continue to have a majority in the New York State Senate and Assembly, along with a Democratic governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general and comptroller. Although Democrats will continue to serve in the majority party, Republicans have made serious strides throughout the state. Check out the results from the 2022 General Election.

Prior to the election, the Society’s Government Relations Team spent time building relationships with candidates running for office, and now we are aiming to strengthen our relationships with the newly elected or re-elected leaders. New Yorkers made their voice heard on Election Day, and now it’s time to work with those legislators, regulators and public servants to ensure that our members’ message is crystal clear!

As we prepare for a new year with a new class of legislators and re-elected statewide officials, our PAC will continue to strive to break down barriers, cut through red tape and open the necessary doors in Albany, in order to continue making a difference for the profession and our members.

THE MARTIN ACT

Background: The NYSSCPA opposes New York state’s possible expansion of the Martin Act, which allows the state attorney general great leverage to fight financial fraud. The Senate and Assembly have proposed bills that would require the attorney general to investigate financial entities if a public pension fund trustee alleges that a practice is fraudulent under the Martin Act and allegedly caused damage to the fund that the trustee serves.

Update: The NYSSCPA opposes such legislation—existing law already grants greater authority to the attorney general than in any other state, and it would adversely affect the state’s business climate.

The Legislative Task Force (LTF) is responsible for the monitoring and evaluation of New York state laws, legislation, rules and regulations related to the accounting profession, in particular, and business, in general. In conjunction with the Society’s legislative staff, the LTF proactively recommends to the NYSSCPA Board various amendments and changes to existing legislation and regulations, on a continual basis.
